25 November 1993: two minibuses bring the first detainees from Harmondsworth, Heathrow, to Campsfield. Demonstrators at the gate protest. Since then, detainees themselves have mounted countless protests. Over 10,000 innocent people, refugees and undocumented migrants, have been imprisoned in Campsfield for anything from a day or two to months, even years, without being charged with any crime, without judicial oversight or proper reason given, and without time limit. Now the government wants to build a new detention centre of 900 places – the biggest in Europe – at Bullingdon near Bicester just down the road.

NO detention / NO deportations / NO destitution !
